

CLIPPING

Continued from Page One.

J. respectively, have been visiting their sister, Mrs. R. Higgins, Seabrook, Prince George County.

Mr. Howard Joelyn, of Seattle, Wash., has been visiting his aunt, Mrs. Mary E. Wilson, and his cousin, Mr. Charles I. Wilson.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles T. Gardner, of Chattanooga, Tenn., have returned after a pleasant stay with friends near Beltsville, in the upper section of Prince George County.

Mr. and Mrs. Thomas A. Rigles have returned to New York City after a pleasant stay with friends and relatives at Seabrook, Prince George County.

The Misses Alice and Maud Vinson, of Petersburg, Va., are visiting friends near Cheltenham, in the lower section of Prince George County.

Miss Angela Vandoren, of Ralston Avenue, has returned after a stay of several weeks with friends and relatives in Philadelphia and York, Pa.

Mr. W. H. Hudson, Maryland Avenue, is spending a few weeks with friends and relatives in Washington.

Miss Elizabeth Gibson has returned from a delightful visit to her brother in Northern Pennsylvania.

Mr. and Mrs. Clarence B. Nalley, of West Virginia, have returned after a stay of several weeks with friends here.

Mr. and Mrs. S. Marvin Peach, Shepherd's subdivision, will spend the month of October with the former's parents, Dr. and Mrs. John Peach, near Mitchellville, Prince George County.

LAUREL.

Mr. and Mrs. Baughman and family, who have been here for the past year, have moved with their family to Baltimore for the winter.

Miss Miriam Quarrel, of Baltimore, was the guest for the week end of Miss Inman in Lafayette Avenue.

Miss Mary Clark, daughter of Mrs. M. A. Clark, was married at 7 o'clock Tuesday evening to Mr. Langley, of Philadelphia.

The wedding took place at the home of the bride's mother in Gorman Avenue. The bride was dressed in white chiffon over silk, and Mrs. Langley left that night for a wedding journey, after which they will live in Washington.

Mr. Duncan, of Washington, preached at St. Phillips Church Sunday in the absence of the rector, Rev. G. A. Johnston, who is at Berkeley Springs, W. Va.

A dance was given by the Laurel Horse Show Association at the fair grounds, Thursday evening. Many were present from Laurel and adjoining counties. The patronesses were Mrs. Richard A. Johnson, Mrs. Mahlon Kirke, Mrs. W. W. Cassel, and Mrs. W. H. Harrison.

Miss Stewart, of Texas, is the guest of Miss Frances Williams at her home in Washington Avenue.

Dr. Charles F. Billard, of Washington, was the guest of friends here during the week.

Mr. and Mrs. George McCarty, Mrs. R. H. Eadler, and Mr. Bert Sadler visited Havre de Grace last week.

Mrs. M. A. Cole and son have returned from a visit to friends at Frostburg, Md.

Mr. Edward Lawrence, of Baltimore, is visiting friends here.

Mr. and Mrs. Conington have returned from a visit to Delaware.

Miss Elizabeth Herbert visited in Baltimore during the week.

Miss Hattie Donagan Smith, daughter of Mrs. T. Leigh Marriott, of Baltimore, was married at noon Tuesday, to Mr. Edward H. Whitwell, of Montgomery County, Md. The wedding took place at Mr. Marriott's country home, near here, and was performed by Rev. J. H. Jeffries, pastor of Laurel Methodist Episcopal Church.

The bride wore a white satin gown and tulle veil, and carried a bouquet of roses. The wedding march was played by Miss Mary Marriott, sister of the bride, and Miss Helen Simpson, of Washington. Mr. Rodgers, cousin of the groom, was best man. On account of the recent illness of the bride's mother only the immediate families were present. Mr. and Mrs. Whitwell left in the afternoon for a wedding journey, after which they will live at Locust Grove, Laurel.

Miss Mary Water is the guest of Miss Helena Inman at her home in Lafayette Avenue.

ROCKVILLE.

Among the out-of-the-county couples married in Rockville during the week were David Ernest Cohen and Miss Esther Marie Sheehan, both of Washington; Leslie Jones, of Riverdale, Md.; and Miss Ethel and Walter C. Syracuse, N. Y.; William Burke Smith, of Washington, and Miss Mildred Louise Morisset, of Chesapeake Beach, Md.; Harry C. Rose, and Miss Marie Ernestine Wightman, both of Washington.

MRS. WILLIAM BARRET RIDGELY, Who will return to-morrow from New England.

After spending several months at the home of her uncle, Mr. Edward E. Welsh, near Rockville, Miss Margaret Shire left a few days ago for her home in San Antonio, Tex.

Miss Mattie England, of Florida, is visiting at the home of her father, Mr. John G. England here.

Mr. Norman Garrett, of Washington, visited relatives in Rockville during the week.

Mrs. Earle and children, of Washington, spent the week at the home of Mrs. Earle's parents, Mr. and Mrs. William H. Habbitt, near Rockville.

Miss Lillian Fields has returned to her home in Washington, after spending several weeks in Rockville as the guest of her cousin, Miss Mabel Hancy.

Hon. Charles D. Wagoner, of Washington County, Republican candidate for Congress, spent the week in this county in the interest of his candidacy. Wednesday evening, he was the guest of honor at a dinner given by Frank L. Hewitt, of Silver Spring.

Judge Edward C. Peter spent the week in Frederick in attendance upon the September term of the Circuit Court for that county.

Mrs. Ludley, of Delaware, is the guest of her parents, Rev. and Mrs. John R. Henderson, here.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles W. Prettyman returned a few days ago from a visit to Rev. and Mrs. George Beall, in Virginia.

Mrs. Rose Bradley, of Rosalyn, Va., was a visitor to Rockville during the week.

Mr. John A. Garrett and family, of Glen Echo, have removed to Washington for the winter.

Miss Hilda Mae Benson, of Griffin, this county, left yesterday for Manassas, Va., to take charge of the seventh grade in the high school at that place. She is a graduate of the Harrisonburg (Va.) State Normal School.

Miss Sadie Regina Warner and Mr. Benjamin Edward Hale, both of Baltimore, were married in Rockville during the week by Rev. Samuel R. White, of the Baptist Church, at the home of the minister.

Interesting exercises marked the formal opening Wednesday afternoon of Briarley Hall Military Academy, at Poolesville, this county. Prof. Sidney J. Lodge, superintendent of the institution, presided, and among those who delivered addresses were State Senator Blair Lee, Judge William L. Chambers, Capt. Miller Cassey, Capt. L. W. Driscoll, Prof. Edwin W. Broome, Prof. Lodge, and others.

Mrs. Harry G. Post, of this place, is entertaining Mrs. Keughlin, of McKeesport, Pa., and Mrs. Temmel and Mrs. Gullagher, of Pittsburgh, Pa.

Dr. and Mrs. Mervin Maus, of Governor's Island, spent several days in Rockville during the week visiting relatives.

Mrs. Hugh Armstrong and little daughter, of Kensington, are visiting at Dolgaville, N. Y.

Mrs. E. R. Hodge and sons have returned to their home at Kensington, after spending several weeks on the Severn.

ALEXANDRIA.

Lieut. and Mrs. Charles Maigne are the guests of Mrs. Maigne's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Francis J. Davidson, in South Royal Street.

Mr. John Leadbeater and children have returned from Sandy Spring, Md., where they spent several weeks.

Mr. Laurence Leadbeater, of Birmingham, Ala., is the guest of his mother, Mrs. E. A. Leadbeater, at her home, Fort Lyons, Fairfax County.

Mrs. Mary Greenwell, Miss Lottie Greenwell, and Miss Lillian Callahan are at Atlantic City, where they will spend some time.

Miss Mary Neukens, of this city, is the guest of the Misses Harlow, of Fairfax County.

Mr. and Mrs. E. Matter left during the week for Panama, where they will spend some time.

Mr. Elmer Sullivan has gone to Warrenton, where he will spend the winter. Miss Mabelle Schwartzman is visiting friends in Baltimore.

Miss Mollie Oden, of Warrenton, is visiting friends in this city.

Rev. I. W. Canter, of Baltimore, who has been the guest of Rev. and Mrs. H. M. Canter, has returned home.

Mrs. Antonia Converse, who was a recent guest of Mrs. Lucyus Usher at her home in South Washington Street, has returned to her home in Columbus, Ohio.

Capt. Herbert Bryant and family have returned from Jamestown, R. I., where they spent the summer.

Mr. and Mrs. Lewis H. Maeben have returned to this city after visiting Mrs. Maeben's sister, Mrs. Lansing M. Dew, of Vienna, and Mr. Maeben's father, Mr. James F. Maeben, of Centerville, Va.

Miss Elizabeth Dulany Herbert has returned from a visit to Mrs. J. Percy Evans, at Markham, Va.

Miss Edie V. Claphorn has gone to New York and Boston.

Dr. John W. Burke, who spent several weeks at Atlantic City, has returned.

Miss Henrietta E. Strobel, of Florida, is visiting friends here.

Miss Mary Carlin has returned from Hot Springs, Va., accompanied by her niece, Miss Nina Fulton, who will spend the winter with her.

Miss Lucy M. Graves has returned after spending three months in England, Belgium, Holland, France, Switzerland, and Austria.

After a month's visit to relatives in Norfolk, Miss Roxie Doniphan has returned to her home in the Fairfax apartments.

Mrs. J. F. Payne, of Cheltenham, W. Va., is visiting her daughter, Mrs. Paea Kennedy, at the Theological Seminary.

Miss Christina Farnival, of Rapidan, Va., is the guest of Miss Anna Barley, in North Columbia Street.

Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Miley and children, of Charleston, W. Va., are visiting Mrs. Miley's aunt in this city.

A tea was given Friday evening at Odd Fellows Hall by the young ladies of the Alexandria High School. Funds will be applied to the athletic fund of the school.

Mrs. Mary E. Smith, of this city, accompanied by her sister, Mrs. Catherine Murphy, is visiting relatives and friends in Baltimore.

Mrs. Hobbs, wife of Rev. C. Kelley Hobbs, has returned after spending her vacation in Albemarle County, Va., accompanied by her brother, Mr. Charles L. Page, of Albemarle County, who is now her guest.

After a visit to relatives and friends in Woodstock, Va., Miss Catherine Few has returned to her home in this city.

Judge Livingston W. Cleveland, of New Haven, Conn., is visiting his relative, Mr. J. T. Preston, 215 South Royal Street.

Mr. J. Harry Catts and Miss Lillian Catts, of this city, were married in Washington last Wednesday evening at Epiphany Church by Rev. Dr. McKim.

Miss Willis Brown, of Washington, was the bridesmaid, and Mr. Charles Wright, of this city, was the best man. The couple left for Norfolk, where they will spend their honeymoon.

Mr. and Mrs. Samuel R. Kelly and son, Mr. James Kelly, of 101 South Columbus Street, were tendered a surprise party last Tuesday by a number of young ladies from Washington. Among those present were Misses Mary Kavanagh, Clara Dillon, Isabel Dwyer, Loretta Quill, Helen Quill, Florence Hughes, Jeannette Hughes, Katharine Kirby, Mr. and Mrs. James O. Mahoney, Mr. Robert Alexander Zachary, of Del Ray, Va.

Miss Cora Greenway, who has been visiting Dr. and Mrs. J. Garnett King, of Fredericksburg, has returned home.

Dr. and Mrs. Angus Crawford have returned to their home, on Seminary Hill, after spending some time with their son-in-law and daughter, Rev. and Mrs. Oscar Randolph.

Mr. and Mrs. Adolph E. Edwards, of Bridgeport, N. J., have announced the engagement of their daughter, Miss Mary La Petra Edwards, to Mr. Robert Alexander Zachary, of Del Ray, Va.

Mrs. T. E. Lynn and daughter Thelma and Miss Lucy Lynn have returned from Baltimore, where they visited Mrs. Lynn's parents.

Miss Harriet Douglas is visiting Mrs. Coates at Catlett, Va.

Miss Lula Critcher was the guest during the week of Judge and Mrs. L. C. Bailey, in North Columbus Street.

Mrs. Frances Welles, Miss R. T. Greene, Miss Mattie Crilly, and Mrs. James W. Bates, successfully presidents of St. Mary's Alumnae, at a meeting Sunday night last nominated the following year's officers for the ensuing year: Misses Mary Harlow, Ella Hill, Theresa Waters, Mary Kavanagh, Margaret Greene, and Madeline Byrne. Officers will be elected at a banquet of the alumnae which will be held October 23.

Mr. and Mrs. M. Murphy have returned after a trip to New York and Niagara Falls.

Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Carter have returned to their home in Green Valley Alexandria County, after a visit to relatives in England.

Mr. and Mrs. George Keys have returned to their home in Rosemont after a visit to Orkney Springs, Va.

Miss Nellie Usher is visiting her brother-in-law and sister, Mr. and Mrs. Charles C. Smoot, third, North Wilkesboro, N. C.

Mr. and Mrs. R. W. Goldworthy, of Rosemont, were recently tendered a surprise party by a number of members of the Old Dominion Division of the Grand International Auxiliary to the Brotherhood of Locomotive Engineers. A large number of out-of-town guests attended.

Mr. and Mrs. R. W. Goldworthy, of Rosemont, were recently tendered a surprise party by a number of members of the Old Dominion Division of the Grand International Auxiliary to the Brotherhood of Locomotive Engineers. A large number of out-of-town guests attended.

Mr. and Mrs. R. W. Goldworthy, of Rosemont, were recently tendered a surprise party by a number of members of the Old Dominion Division of the Grand International Auxiliary to the Brotherhood of Locomotive Engineers. A large number of out-of-town guests attended.

Mr. and Mrs. R. W. Goldworthy, of Rosemont, were recently tendered a surprise party by a number of members of the Old Dominion Division of the Grand International Auxiliary to the Brotherhood of Locomotive Engineers. A large number of out-of-town guests attended.

Mr. and Mrs. R. W. Goldworthy, of Rosemont, were recently tendered a surprise party by a number of members of the Old Dominion Division of the Grand International Auxiliary to the Brotherhood of Locomotive Engineers. A large number of out-of-town guests attended.

Mr. and Mrs. R. W. Goldworthy, of Rosemont, were recently tendered a surprise party by a number of members of the Old Dominion Division of the Grand International Auxiliary to the Brotherhood of Locomotive Engineers. A large number of out-of-town guests attended.

Mr. and Mrs. R. W. Goldworthy, of Rosemont, were recently tendered a surprise party by a number of members of the Old Dominion Division of the Grand International Auxiliary to the Brotherhood of Locomotive Engineers. A large number of out-of-town guests attended.

Mr. and Mrs. R. W. Goldworthy, of Rosemont, were recently tendered a surprise party by a number of members of the Old Dominion Division of the Grand International Auxiliary to the Brotherhood of Locomotive Engineers. A large number of out-of-town guests attended.

Mr. and Mrs. R. W. Goldworthy, of Rosemont, were recently tendered a surprise party by a number of members of the Old Dominion Division of the Grand International Auxiliary to the Brotherhood of Locomotive Engineers. A large number of out-of-town guests attended.

Mr. and Mrs. R. W. Goldworthy, of Rosemont, were recently tendered a surprise party by a number of members of the Old Dominion Division of the Grand International Auxiliary to the Brotherhood of Locomotive Engineers. A large number of out-of-town guests attended.

Mr. and Mrs. R. W. Goldworthy, of Rosemont, were recently tendered a surprise party by a number of members of the Old Dominion Division of the Grand International Auxiliary to the Brotherhood of Locomotive Engineers. A large number of out-of-town guests attended.

Mr. and Mrs. R. W. Goldworthy, of Rosemont, were recently tendered a surprise party by a number of members of the Old Dominion Division of the Grand International Auxiliary to the Brotherhood of Locomotive Engineers. A large number of out-of-town guests attended.

Mr. and Mrs. R. W. Goldworthy, of Rosemont, were recently tendered a surprise party by a number of members of the Old Dominion Division of the Grand International Auxiliary to the Brotherhood of Locomotive Engineers. A large number of out-of-town guests attended.

Mr. and Mrs. R. W. Goldworthy, of Rosemont, were recently tendered a surprise party by a number of members of the Old Dominion Division of the Grand International Auxiliary to the Brotherhood of Locomotive Engineers. A large number of out-of-town guests attended.

Mr. and Mrs. R. W. Goldworthy, of Rosemont, were recently tendered a surprise party by a number of members of the Old Dominion Division of the Grand International Auxiliary to the Brotherhood of Locomotive Engineers. A large number of out-of-town guests attended.

Mr. and Mrs. R. W. Goldworthy, of Rosemont, were recently tendered a surprise party by a number of members of the Old Dominion Division of the Grand International Auxiliary to the Brotherhood of Locomotive Engineers. A large number of out-of-town guests attended.

Mr. and Mrs. R. W. Goldworthy, of Rosemont, were recently tendered a surprise party by a number of members of the Old Dominion Division of the Grand International Auxiliary to the Brotherhood of Locomotive Engineers. A large number of out-of-town guests attended.

Mr. and Mrs. R. W. Goldworthy, of Rosemont, were recently tendered a surprise party by a number of members of the Old Dominion Division of the Grand International Auxiliary to the Brotherhood of Locomotive Engineers. A large number of out-of-town guests attended.

Mr. and Mrs. R. W. Goldworthy, of Rosemont, were recently tendered a surprise party by a number of members of the Old Dominion Division of the Grand International Auxiliary to the Brotherhood of Locomotive Engineers. A large number of out-of-town guests attended.

Mr. and Mrs. R. W. Goldworthy, of Rosemont, were recently tendered a surprise party by a number of members of the Old Dominion Division of the Grand International Auxiliary to the Brotherhood of Locomotive Engineers. A large number of out-of-town guests attended.

Mr. and Mrs. R. W. Goldworthy, of Rosemont, were recently tendered a surprise party by a number of members of the Old Dominion Division of the Grand International Auxiliary to the Brotherhood of Locomotive Engineers. A large number of out-of-town guests attended.

Mr. and Mrs. R. W. Goldworthy, of Rosemont, were recently tendered a surprise party by a number of members of the Old Dominion Division of the Grand International Auxiliary to the Brotherhood of Locomotive Engineers. A large number of out-of-town guests attended.

Mr. and Mrs. R. W. Goldworthy, of Rosemont, were recently tendered a surprise party by a number of members of the Old Dominion Division of the Grand International Auxiliary to the Brotherhood of Locomotive Engineers. A large number of out-of-town guests attended.

Mr. and Mrs. R. W. Goldworthy, of Rosemont, were recently tendered a surprise party by a number of members of the Old Dominion Division of the Grand International Auxiliary to the Brotherhood of Locomotive Engineers. A large number of out-of-town guests attended.

Mr. and Mrs. R. W. Goldworthy, of Rosemont, were recently tendered a surprise party by a number of members of the Old Dominion Division of the Grand International Auxiliary to the Brotherhood of Locomotive Engineers. A large number of out-of-town guests attended.

Mr. and Mrs. R. W. Goldworthy, of Rosemont, were recently tendered a surprise party by a number of members of the Old Dominion Division of the Grand International Auxiliary to the Brotherhood of Locomotive Engineers. A large number of out-of-town guests attended.

Mr. and Mrs. R. W. Goldworthy, of Rosemont, were recently tendered a surprise party by a number of members of the Old Dominion Division of the Grand International Auxiliary to the Brotherhood of Locomotive Engineers. A large number of out-of-town guests attended.

Mr. and Mrs. R. W. Goldworthy, of Rosemont, were recently tendered a surprise party by a number of members of the Old Dominion Division of the Grand International Auxiliary to the Brotherhood of Locomotive Engineers. A large number of out-of-town guests attended.

Mr. and Mrs. R. W. Goldworthy, of Rosemont, were recently tendered a surprise party by a number of members of the Old Dominion Division of the Grand International Auxiliary to the Brotherhood of Locomotive Engineers. A large number of out-of-town guests attended.

Mr. and Mrs. R. W. Goldworthy, of Rosemont, were recently tendered a surprise party by a number of members of the Old Dominion Division of the Grand International Auxiliary to the Brotherhood of Locomotive Engineers. A large number of out-of-town guests attended.

Mr. and Mrs. R. W. Goldworthy, of Rosemont, were recently tendered a surprise party by a number of members of the Old Dominion Division of the Grand International Auxiliary to the Brotherhood of Locomotive Engineers. A large number of out-of-town guests attended.

Mr. and Mrs. R. W. Goldworthy, of Rosemont, were recently tendered a surprise party by a number of members of the Old Dominion Division of the Grand International Auxiliary to the Brotherhood of Locomotive Engineers. A large number of out-of-town guests attended.

Mr. and Mrs. R. W. Goldworthy, of Rosemont, were recently tendered a surprise party by a number of members of the Old Dominion Division of the Grand International Auxiliary to the Brotherhood of Locomotive Engineers. A large number of out-of-town guests attended.

Mr. and Mrs. R. W. Goldworthy, of Rosemont, were recently tendered a surprise party by a number of members of the Old Dominion Division of the Grand International Auxiliary to the Brotherhood of Locomotive Engineers. A large number of out-of-town guests attended.

Mr. and Mrs. R. W. Goldworthy, of Rosemont, were recently tendered a surprise party by a number of members of the Old Dominion Division of the Grand International Auxiliary to the Brotherhood of Locomotive Engineers. A large number of out-of-town guests attended.

Mr. and Mrs. R. W. Goldworthy, of Rosemont, were recently tendered a surprise party by a number of members of the Old Dominion Division of the Grand International Auxiliary to the Brotherhood of Locomotive Engineers. A large number of out-of-town guests attended.

Mr. and Mrs. R. W. Goldworthy, of Rosemont, were recently tendered a surprise party by a number of members of the Old Dominion Division of the Grand International Auxiliary to the Brotherhood of Locomotive Engineers. A large number of out-of-town guests attended.

Mr. and Mrs. R. W. Goldworthy, of Rosemont, were recently tendered a surprise party by a number of members of the Old Dominion Division of the Grand International Auxiliary to the Brotherhood of Locomotive Engineers. A large number of out-of-town guests attended.

Mr. and Mrs. R. W. Goldworthy, of Rosemont, were recently tendered a surprise party by a number of members of the Old Dominion Division of the Grand International Auxiliary to the Brotherhood of Locomotive Engineers. A large number of out-of-town guests attended.

Mr. and Mrs. R. W. Goldworthy, of Rosemont, were recently tendered a surprise party by a number of members of the Old Dominion Division of the Grand International Auxiliary to the Brotherhood of Locomotive Engineers. A large number of out-of-town guests attended.

Mr. and Mrs. R. W. Goldworthy, of Rosemont, were recently tendered a surprise party by a number of members of the Old Dominion Division of the Grand International Auxiliary to the Brotherhood of Locomotive Engineers. A large number of out-of-town guests attended.

Mr. and Mrs. R. W. Goldworthy, of Rosemont, were recently tendered a surprise party by a number of members of the Old Dominion Division of the Grand International Auxiliary to the Brotherhood of Locomotive Engineers. A large number of out-of-town guests attended.

Mr. and Mrs. R. W. Goldworthy, of Rosemont, were recently tendered a surprise party by a number of members of the Old Dominion Division of the Grand International Auxiliary to the Brotherhood of Locomotive Engineers. A large number of out-of-town guests attended.

Mr. and Mrs. R. W. Goldworthy, of Rosemont, were recently tendered a surprise party by a number of members of the Old Dominion Division of the Grand International Auxiliary to the Brotherhood of Locomotive Engineers. A large number of out-of-town guests attended.

Mr. and Mrs. R. W. Goldworthy, of Rosemont, were recently tendered a surprise party by a number of members of the Old Dominion Division of the Grand International Auxiliary to the Brotherhood of Locomotive Engineers. A large number of out-of-town guests attended.

Mr. and Mrs. R. W. Goldworthy, of Rosemont, were recently tendered a surprise party by a number of members of the Old Dominion Division of the Grand International Auxiliary to the Brotherhood of Locomotive Engineers. A large number of out-of-town guests attended.

Mr. and Mrs. R. W. Goldworthy, of Rosemont, were recently tendered a surprise party by a number of members of the Old Dominion Division of the Grand International Auxiliary to the Brotherhood of Locomotive Engineers. A large number of out-of-town guests attended.

Mr. and Mrs. R. W. Goldworthy, of Rosemont, were recently tendered a surprise party by a number of members of the Old Dominion Division of the Grand International Auxiliary to the Brotherhood of Locomotive Engineers. A large number of out-of-town guests attended.

Mr. and Mrs. R. W. Goldworthy, of Rosemont, were recently tendered a surprise party by a number of members of the Old Dominion Division of the Grand International Auxiliary to the Brotherhood of Locomotive Engineers. A large number of out-of-town guests attended.

Mr. and Mrs. R. W. Goldworthy, of Rosemont, were recently tendered a surprise party by a number of members of the Old Dominion Division of the Grand International Auxiliary to the Brotherhood of Locomotive Engineers. A large number of out-of-town guests attended.

Mr. and Mrs. R. W. Goldworthy, of Rosemont, were recently tendered a surprise party by a number of members of the Old Dominion Division of the Grand International Auxiliary to the Brotherhood of Locomotive Engineers. A large number of out-of-town guests attended.

Mr. and Mrs. R. W. Goldworthy, of Rosemont, were recently tendered a surprise party by a number of members of the Old Dominion Division of the Grand International Auxiliary to the Brotherhood of Locomotive Engineers. A large number of out-of-town guests attended.

Mr. and Mrs. R. W. Goldworthy, of Rosemont, were recently tendered a surprise party by a number of members of the Old Dominion Division of the Grand International Auxiliary to the Brotherhood of Locomotive Engineers. A large number of out-of-town guests attended.

Philipsborn

THE OUTER GARMENT SHOP
608 TO 614 ELEVENTH STREET.

We announce for tomorrow and the following days of the week our Opening Exhibition of

Fall and Winter Millinery, Suits, Dresses, Coats, Waists, Skirts and Furs.

A display of

The Newest Foreign Types

—in conjunction with—

Creations and adaptations by our own designers.

The exact styles which the well dressed women of Paris and New York will wear this fall and winter will be exhibited. Beautiful hats, gowns, wraps, tailored costumes, coats, blouses and furs, reproduced from the most authoritative Paris models. This is a store for the woman of fastidious taste and moderate means—our exact reproduction of the most exclusive creations of the noted French couturiers means the highest standard of merchandise at sensible prices ever attained.

PROMINENT MEN TO GREET DELEGATES

President Taft and Gov. Wilson to Speak at American Roads Congress.

Atlantic City, Sept. 28.—President Taft, Gov. Woodrow Wilson, members of both Houses of Congress, and some of the most prominent engineers in the United States have mailed their acceptance to the invitations issued by those in charge of the American Road Congress, to attend the meeting of that organization here, September 30 to October 1.

President Taft has been elected honorary president of the organization, while the House and Senate representation enjoy the title of honorary delegates. Gov. Woodrow Wilson, back from his tour of the West, has been placed on the programme for the welcoming address Monday.

Such importance has been attached to the meeting of the Road Congress, the officers of the organization predicting an early awakening on the part of the people of the United States to the need of better highways as a factor in reducing the cost of living by providing cheaper transportation.

The autoist and the good road movement have also been allotted considerable attention. Prof. Charles Thaddeus Terry, of Columbia University, has been chosen to speak on this topic. Secretary J. C. Scates, of the A. A. A. of Maine, has prepared an address on automobile necessity. This simple discovery of automobile organizations have signified their intention of presenting before the delegates various phases of the same subject.

Mr. Eugene de Guerin, violinist and principal of the De Guerin School of Music, re-opened the school in all its branches of musical instruction last Tuesday. Miss Mabel Linton will be the new head of the piano department of the school, which is located at 146 H Street Northwest.

Mrs. Emille L. Marcon, pianist, has returned from a two months' sojourn in the Marcon family, who are now in Island, R. I., where she appeared in recital before a large New York and Brooklyn audience. Mrs. Marcon was most cordially received in the following programme: Prelude (Bachmanoff), "Egeria" (Kroeger), "Papillon" (Rosenwald), "Moonlight Sonata" (Beethoven), Waltz, Eccelesiae, Etude and March (Chopin), and "To Springs and Weddingday" (Grieg).

Mrs. Marcon will give a series of informal musicales on the third Tuesday evening of each month during the coming season, at her studio in the New Hampshire, 153 Seventh Street Northwest.

The music at the Church of the Covenant, tent will be furnished this evening by a quartet of soloists. The quartet selections for the evening include "Behold the Days Come" (Woodward), solo part carried by William Conrad Mills, tenor; "Savior, When Thou Comest" (Spicker), Mrs. Helen D. Devo, soprano, and Arthur H. Delbert, bass, will sing each a solo.

Miss Clara Asherfeld, of the Peabody Conservatory of Music of Baltimore, will continue to spend Saturdays with her pupils in Washington, at her studio, 178 Columbia Road.

The musical programme for the morning service at the First Congregational Church to-day will be as follows: Anthem, "O Paradise" (Gelbel); "The Sun Shall be no More Thy Light" (Woodward); offertory, soprano and contralto duet, "His Hands Are